Dear Barbara:

Your article on the Carbondale Historical Society's Christmas party ("'New Life' brought to 3rd floor of city hall") and your article on Maplewood Cemetery ("Juveniles are sent to court for vandalism")--both in the December 15, 1982 issue of THE CARBONDALE NEWS--are excellent. As always, in your articles, you present not only the "big picture" but also abundant details. Congratulations.

The next meeting of the Carbondale Historical Society should be an interesting one, to be sure. Carbondale Postmaster Gerald P. Barrett will attend the meeting in order to report on and answer questions about the proposed new Post Office for Carbondale. The meeting, which will be open to the general public, will take place on Thursday, January 6, 1983, at 7:30 P.M. in the Berean Baptist Church (use Lincoln Avenue entrance) in Carbondale. I hope that your schedule is such that you will be able to attend this important meeting.

Sincerely,

Robert
